THINKHBCU EXPO

Launching New Dimensions of Service...
ON THE YARD II

On-site Admissions | Financial Aid Counseling | Student Life Discussions

America's Historically Black College & Universities (HBCUs) continue to graduate the majority of college educated African-Americans in many professions. Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority's "ThinkHBCU", an international campaign to bring awareness and financial support to HBCUs for their contribution to the sorority and society kicked off with incredible enthusiasm in 2014. Under the leadership of International President, Beverly Mackman Wilson, L.L.D., the sorority and its members are educating, engaging and advocating for HBCUs. The Think HBCU Expo will highlight these institutions as critical venues for moving students to and through college. The ThinkHBCU Expo will also highlight how students can prepare, apply, and succeed in their pursuit of an education at an HBCU. Join us for this engaging, interactive, and fun expo!

Black History Moment

James (Jimmy) Winkfield

James (Jimmy) Winkfield was a Thoroughbred jockey and trainer from Kentucky, known as the last Black man to ride a winner in the Kentucky Derby. Born in Chilesburg, Kentucky on April 12, 1882-James began his career as a jockey at age 16 in 1898. He first competed in the Kentucky Derby in 1900 finishing third upon Thrive. In 1901 and 1902 he won the Kentucky Derby upon His Eminence and Alan-a-Dale respectively. In 1901 alone, he won 220 races. His final Derby was aboard Early where he finished second. In 1904 Winkfield emigrated to Russia due to racism in Thoroughbred racing in America. Jimmy Winkfield won the Russian Oaks (5 times), the Russian Derby (4 times), the Czar's Prize (3 times), the Warsaw Derby (2 times), the Prix du President de la Republique, the Grand Prix de Deauville, the Prix Eugene Adam as well as other European races. When Jimmy retired at the age of 50 he had won over 2,500 races, and began a new career as a successful horse trainer. Jimmy Winkfield died at his home in Maisons-Lafitte in France in 1974. He was posthumously inducted into the National Museum of Racing and Hall of Fame in 2004, and has The Jimmy Winkfield Stakes at Aqueduct Racetrack run in his honor.
